

First steps Guide for students at Eötvös Loránd University (ELTE), Budapest, Hungary

Dear Student,

Congratulations on your admission and welcome to ELTE! We collected some useful information for the start of your studies:

WHAT TO DO – BEFORE YOU ARRIVE AT ELTE (AUGUST 2025):

- ✓ Log in to Neptun (and pay your tuition fee, if required for visa arrangements)
- ✓ Apply for a visa to Hungary (for non-EEA students)
- ✓ Arrange travel and health insurance for the period until you enroll at ELTE
- ✓ Arrange your travel to Hungary
- ✓ Arrange accommodation in Budapest
- ✓ Prepare for your enrolment at the university
- ✓ Check out the welcome event dates
- ✓ Course registration
- ✓ Other specific and useful information

HOW TO DO IT:

1. Log in to and get familiar with the Neptun system: check our Neptun tutorial on how to use the system

- 1) You either have already received or will receive shortly your Neptun code, which is an individual username for our online study management system called Neptun.
- 2) Generate your password. Instructions are available here, but you also receive(d) info on how to do it with the Neptun code. Make sure you use exactly the same information the same way you uploaded it in the DreamApply system when you submitted your application!
- 3) Activate your semester in Neptun: Administration / Enrolment – tick the box to set the listed 2025/26/1 semester for active. This is something you will need to do at the beginning of every semester, otherwise you won't be able to register for courses.
 - If you need to pay the tuition fee for the visa application, activate your semester as soon as possible. The tuition fee will appear in your Neptun account (Finances/Payment) one or two days following activation. The payment procedure is described here:
https://www.ppk.elte.hu/en/student_administration/payments

2. Apply for a visa <https://www.elte.hu/en/visa-procedure> <https://konzuliszolgalat.kormany.hu/en>

- If you are a student from a non-EEA (European Economic Area) country, you need to apply for a residence permit visa (D-visa) for the purpose of studies before you come to Hungary.
- You can apply for a visa at the Hungarian Embassy or Consulate which operates in your country.
- The dormitory address in your acceptance letter can be used for visa purposes (which does not mean that you have a booked dorm place, though).

3. Arrange travel and health insurance

- If you are an EEA student, it is advisable to apply for a European Health Insurance Card from your health insurance institution in your homeland. In addition, travel insurance is recommended to have for your journey.
- If you are a non-EEA student, arrange travel and health insurance at least for the period of your travel and for the first month of your stay (till the end of September). After your enrolment, you can choose to purchase fee-for-service health insurance via the university. <https://www.elte.hu/en/health-insurance/private>

4. Arrange your travel to Hungary

7. Welcome events / Orientation Days

- Detailed programme and information will be sent at the end of August.

8. Course registration

- Course registration for BA and MA/MSc students is already open. You can find an explanation for the different course registration periods in the attached PDF guide. You can check your curriculum here: https://www.ppk.elte.hu/en/student_administration/curriculums (please choose your appropriate level and programme from the drop-down lists). Note: In some programmes, the 2025 curriculum is not uploaded yet, but there will be no changes from the 2024 curriculums so you can freely use them as well.

- Anything that has "1" in the "recommended semester" column is a subject that you will need to register for in your first semester. Since there is only one intake for the programmes per year, freshmen always start their studies in September, which is reflected in the availability of the subjects: recommended semester 1, 3 and 5 will always mean that those subjects are available only in the autumn semester, while 2, 4 and 6 mean that those subjects will be available only in the spring semester.
- There are two main types of subjects: lectures and seminars/practices. Lectures are more frontal presentations by professors, are usually held once per week and are attended by all students at once. Seminars are more practice-oriented classes where students work in smaller groups. Because of this, seminars have more options you can choose from, depending on your schedule and preferences. You need to choose only one of the available options for seminars.
- Another crucial thing to pay attention to is prerequisites: these refer to subjects that must be completed before you are allowed to register for another, usually higher level, subject. Prerequisites in bold mean that they must be completed at least one semester before you are allowed to complete the later subject. Prerequisites in italics mean that they may be completed in the same semester as the later subject but if you don't pass the prerequisite, you are not allowed to pass the later subject either.
- When registering for courses, please make sure that the code of the subject in Neptun exactly matches the subject code as written in the curriculum. Also, you will be put on a "waiting list" after registering for your courses. This is completely normal: you will be on the waiting list until the end of the first course registration period (see the attached PDF for reference).
- Course registration for PhD students follows a different procedure. Please contact your Doctoral School for clarification about the process and the course registration period (which only starts in September): pdi@ppk.elte.hu for psychology PhD and ndi@ppk.elte.hu for education PhD.

9. Other specific and useful information

- The Faculty of Education and Psychology ("PPK") has two main buildings, nicknamed KAZY and IZU. KAZY is located at 23-27 Kazinczy street. This is the main administrative building and the teaching venue for programmes other than psychology. IZU is located at 46 Izabella street and this is the primary teaching venue for psychology students (at all levels). IZU can only be accessed with a special entrance card ("IZU card"). All psychology students (and other students who may have classes in IZU) will receive an entrance card from the International Office, which will need to be returned after you graduated.
- Both the International Office and the Registrar's Office are located in KAZY. While the International Office has standard opening hours (Mon-Thu 9:00-16:00 and Fri 9:00-14:00), the Registrar's Office is open only on set days and in specific working hours. You can check their updated opening hours here: https://www.ppk.elte.hu/en/student_administration/contact
- We'd strongly recommend you to get familiar with the faculty website: <https://ppk.elte.hu/en/>. All important information can be found here. The following webpage from the central university website also includes tons of important and useful information: <https://www.elte.hu/en/current-students>

Please note that during the summer period (1 August - 20 August) the university is closed and we have limited access to emails.

We look forward to meeting you at ELTE PPK in Budapest!
