

Checklist – First week(s) 2025/26 Autumn semester

September

What to do	Details
• Course registration, important dates	BA/MA: preliminary course registration ends on August 29; ranking period August 29 – September 4; competitive period: September 5 – September 12; see here PhD: course registration September 8 – September 18; see here
• Get your student card	Check Quaestura's website for guidelines on how to get your student card here
• Get an IZU entrance card (for psychology students)	You can get an IZU entrance card from the International Office if you weren't here at the Welcome Week
• Pick up your residence permit	Quaestura will notify you by email if you can go and collect your residence permit
• Arrange TAJ card, tax ID and a Hungarian bank account (for scholarship holders)	TAJ card info here: TAJ card Tax ID info here: Tax ID
• Set the campus WiFi	Check this page for guidelines on how to set your WiFi: IT support (elte.hu)
• Join the library	Visit and join the library in KAZY and/or IZU!
• Sign up for Hungarian language courses (mandatory for scholarship holders, optional for self-funded students)	Hungarian language courses are organised by the Faculty of Humanities. You will receive more info about when and how to register for them in the beginning of September.

WELCOME WEEK, SEPTEMBER 2-5

We're organising a Welcome Week for our new students for September 2-5, the week before tuition starts in earnest. You received the final programme schedule together with our Welcome Letter 2.

We're re-sending the schedule of the Welcome Week with this email – please check if you haven't already!

USEFUL LINKS - EMBEDDED

Counselling services

International Peer Counselling \(IPCO\)

Library and databases, PPK library

Sports

Registrar's Office

Academic Committee

Credit Transfer Committee