Dean's Circular No 4/2020. (VI. 09.)

on the available funding for English copyediting and international publications for the lecturers, researchers, doctoral students, and doctoral candidate of ELTE PPK

Dear Colleagues,

I am writing to inform you of the requestable funding at the Faculty for the purposes English copyediting and international publications.

I. English copyediting

You may request Faculty funding for English copyediting, if the manuscript in question is

- a. an English-language article accepted for publishing by a peer-reviewed, preferably Q1 journal (Q2 journals may be considered) with an impact factor,
- b. a chapter in an edited English-language volume referenced by WoS, Scopus, Psycinfo

The Faculty funds are open for continuous applications at palyazat@ppk.elte.hu, by following the instructions on the website at: <https://ppk.elte.hu/en/content/support-of-english-language-revision-of-publications.t.34479>

The funding is awarded by the dean based on internal academic review, as well as the available funds and the application's conformity with the aforementioned criteria.

II. Open Access publishing

You may also request Faculty funding for open access publishing in Q1, in certain cases Q2 rated journals with impact factors (Predatory journals are explicitly excluded. Please confirm that the journal is not predatory before applying based on the following link: <https://libguides.rutgers.edu/predatory>).

The Faculty funds are open for continuous applications at palyazat@ppk.elte.hu, by following the instructions on the website at: https://ppk.elte.hu/open_access

The funding is awarded by the dean based on internal academic review, as well as the available funds and the application's conformity with the aforementioned criteria.

Open access publishing is available free of charge under the University's framework agreements with the following publishers:

- ◆ Akadémiai Kiadó
- ◆ American Chemical Society (ACS)
- ◆ Cambridge University Press (CUP)
- ◆ De Gruyter
- ◆ Elsevier
- ◆ Springer
- ◆ Wiley

You can find more information on ELTE's Read and Publish contracts and the journals covered at the following link: <https://www.konyvtar.elte.hu/en/node/6461> You need only apply for Faculty funding if the journal in question is not covered by the framework agreements.
